GREAT MASTER DRAWINGS

The Allen Memorial Art Museum of Oberlin College has graciously offered to welcome The Print Club of Cleveland at a special evening for Print Club members.

We will meet for a roast beef dinner at the Oberlin Inn at 6:30, following which we will visit the museum and the special loan exhibition of over forty choice drawings from some of America's greatest public and private collections. ~~The~~ The drawings, dating from the 14th century to the present, were part of the drawing exhibition recently shown in New York City and reviewed in TIME magazine, the New York Times and the Illustrated London News.

Oberlin is about 35 miles west of Cleveland on State Route 10 (Lorain Road). Members from east of Cleveland can reach Route 10 by way of State Route 17 (Libby, Granger, Brookpark Roads), State Route 82, or State Route 8 and the Ohio Turnpike.
